

Student Guidance on Registration Holds

When preparing for registration, you should check to see if you have a hold that will impact your course registration or withdrawing from current courses. If a hold exists, you must contact the referenced office to resolve the hold.

Where may I check to see if I have a hold?

Locations students may see if they have registration holds include:

- Schedule Planner at the top as you log in

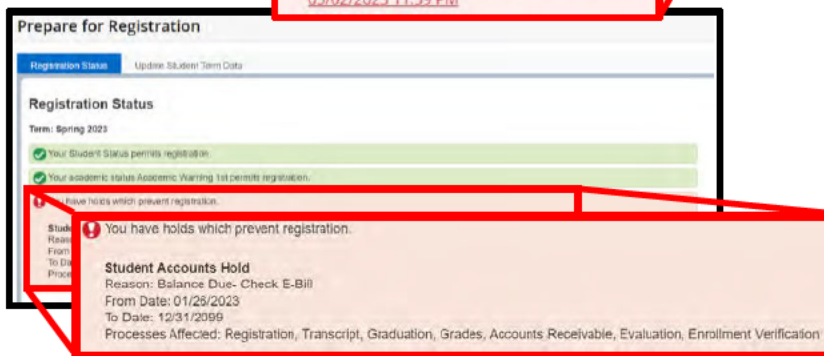

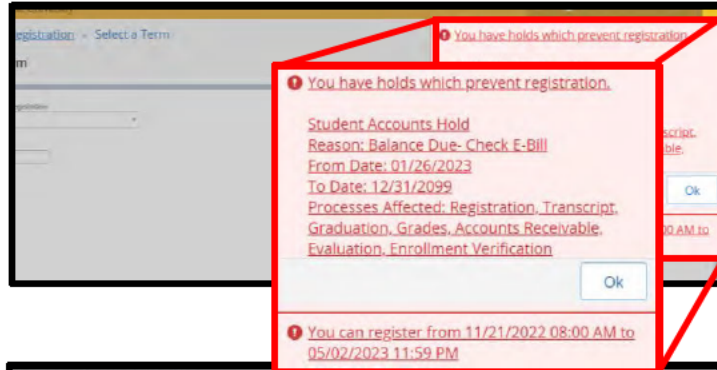

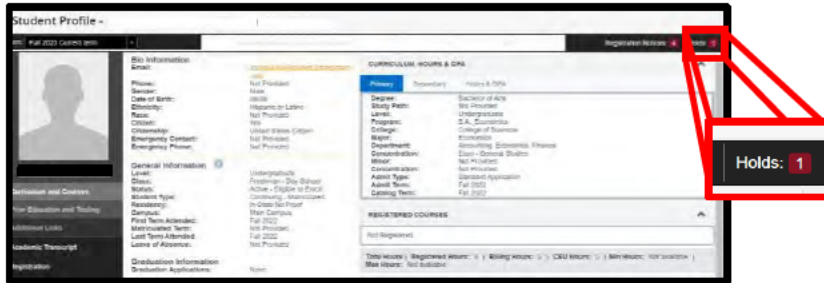

- DegreeWorks in the opening information box/section

- Starfish opening page

- myFramingham Screens: Student Profile, Course Registration & Finance

do I contact when I identify a hold?
