

Welcoming ChileMass 2023

Framingham
State University

FRAMINGHAM STATE UNIVERSITY

Welcomes Chilean Educators

Please join us for refreshments

Thursday, February 2, 2023

4:30 - 5:30 p.m.

O'Connor Hall Lounge
Center of Inclusive Excellence refreshments served

RSVP to Rebecca Hawk rhawk@framingham.edu

“Everyone” on campus came out to Greet ChileMass
2023 Cohort

ChileMass Language Experience for Academic Purposes (LEAP)
Intensive study Academic English Language Programs, FSU

Cruising the Boston Harbor with instructor, Nelson Veloso

Hot Cocoa and Conversation

International Round Table Discussion 21st Century Teaching with FSU Professors

FSU Hosts

Boston, MA, USA

Santiago, Chile

Join the International Discussion: 21st Century Teaching

Meet our visiting Chilean educators, students, FSU professors & staff members.

Roundtable Discussions on how we teach through the same crises:

student mental health, violence, civil unrest, planet degradation, and misplaced priorities.

Everyone is invited. Food is provided

Wednesday, February 15, 5:30 pm in the CIE Lounge, OConnor Hall

Teaching Through Crises

led by Professor Ira Silver

ChileMass 2023 and SPAN 212 Students with Professor Joanne Britland

Meeting with Sigma Delta Pi National Collegiate Hispanic Honors Society at FSU

“Sharing experiences as language educators, common classroom issues, ways to improve ourselves, learning that we deal with many of the same struggles... This was a helpful conversation for all of us.”

(Alejandra Londono, chapter president)

Learning from Local Schools and Teachers

Boston in Winter

Boston Commons

Martin Luther King, Jr. and Coretta Scott King Statue, The Embrace

Finally! It snowed.
Some are very happy about this.

FSU is Going to Miss our ChileMass
Teachers!

