

100 Things to do at

Framingham State University before you Graduate

1. Attend a Black and Gold Beginnings Event during your first weekend of freshman year!
2. Check out late night programming on the weekends.
3. Join a student club/organization or play on an intramural sports team.
4. Attend a Welcome Week event during the first week of September.
5. Follow Framingham State on Twitter @FraminghamU.
6. Go to the Natick Mall.
7. Explore the town of Framingham.
8. Read an entire copy of the Gatepost cover-to-cover.
9. Listen to a show on WDJM 91.3 FM Ram Radio.
10. Choose a major that you are passionate about.
11. Study abroad with the help of the International Education office
12. Attend a show sponsored by the Hilltop Players.
13. Attend an "Arts & Ideas" event.
14. Participate in a Saturdays of Service event (sponsored by SILD).
15. Use Ram Cash at an off-campus location.
16. Win a prize at BINGO (sponsored by SUAB).
17. Write a "thank-you" letter to a professor or staff member who made a positive impact on your life.
18. Get an internship.
19. Watch the Boston Marathon go through Mile 6 in Framingham (Bonus if you run the Boston Marathon!)
20. Get an ice cream at Mad Willies.
21. Perform a random act of kindness during SGA's Week of Kindness.
22. Buy a Framingham State University sweatshirt at the FSU bookstore.
23. Wear black and gold at a FSU sporting event.
24. Go to a group exercise class in the athletic center.
25. Get a job on campus.
26. Get a picture with Sam the Ram.
27. Go to a Homecoming event.
28. Meet the President.
29. Take a selfie with one of your favorite faculty or staff members.
30. Spend a sunny afternoon sitting on the grass in the middle of campus.
31. Vote in the Student Government Association campus wide elections.
32. Apply for a scholarship from the Independent Association of Framingham State Alumni (IAFSA).
33. Eat lunch in the dining hall on Red Sox opening day.
34. Order a pizza from University Pizza on Route 9.
35. Attend one of the Dance Team's semi-annual shows.
36. Take a photo in front of the Framingham State University sign next to Corinne Hall Towers.
37. Attend the Employment and Enjoyment Fair in September.
38. Take a class for fun that has nothing to do with your major (aside from General Education classes).
39. Find a place to study in the Henry Whittemore Library.
40. View a showcase in the Mazmanian Art Gallery.
41. Visit CASA to get help with a class.
42. Attend an event sponsored by the Center for Inclusive Excellence.
43. Take a Saturday to go to Boston with a group of friends.
44. Attend the SGA/SILD All-University Banquet.
45. Try something completely new to you.
46. Wait in line to buy a coffee at the Starbucks Café.
47. Go away for Spring Break.
48. Take a trip to Providence, Rhode Island (only one hour from Framingham!).

49. Conquer a fear.
50. Meet up with your FSU friends over the summer.
51. Attend the Fashion Club's annual Fashion Show.
52. Workout in the Athletic Center.
53. Read a copy of The Onyx.
54. Learn about and embrace another culture you have little or no prior interaction with.
55. Play a game or just relax on the North Hall lawn.
56. See a movie at the AMC Framingham movie theatre.
57. Submit an Op/Ed in the Gatepost.
58. Start a friendship that will last a lifetime.
59. Get a Fo'Real at Sandella's.
60. Go on an adventure.
61. Successfully navigate through the Henry Whittemore Library.
62. Use your FSU Student ID to get a student discount
63. Go skiing with the Ski and Snowboard Club.
64. Apply for Alternative Spring Break (ASB).
65. Pause for Paws during the last week of classes.
66. Attend a Moonlight Breakfast.
67. Get an "A" in a class (repeat frequently).
68. Make someone proud of you.
69. Order a smoothie at the Juice Bar.
70. Play in the snow (safely!) on campus during a snow day.
71. Order food during a late-night study session.
72. Pull a non-academic all-nighter with friends.
73. Help a friend that is struggling in a class.
74. ...And ask for help from a friend when you are struggling in a class.
75. Meet the qualifications and join an honor society.
76. Get signed into every residence hall.
77. Donate blood or volunteer at a campus blood drive!
78. Get dinner with friend at an off-campus restaurant.
79. Get at least one free t-shirt at a campus event or give-away.
80. Go to New York City! (There are bus trips sponsored by FSU clubs every year)
81. Do something that you believed was "impossible."
82. Try ever flavor at Wings over Framingham.
83. Make Dean's List (repeat frequently).
84. Make President's List (also repeat frequently).
85. Eat a type of food that you never tried before.
86. Go to Sandbox on the last day of classes of the Spring Semester.
87. Find a piece of swag that says Framingham State College on it! (FSC became FSU in 2010).
88. Eat something from every dining location on campus.
89. Attend an event sponsored by a club/organization not listed on this sheet.
90. Create a resume with the Office of Career Services and Employer Relations.
91. Find D. Justin McCarthy's head on campus.
92. Tell a friend how much they mean to you
93. Make a post-graduation plan before you graduate (revise as necessary).
94. Buy yourself a graduation gift in the bookstore.
95. Submit a senior letter in The Gatepost in their final issue of your senior year.
96. Go to Senior Investiture!
97. Attend senior week events.
98. Take a picture with your cap and gown with one of your best FSU friends.
99. Wear your cap and gown with pride at Commencement!
100. Be excited to call yourself a Framingham State University alum!