

TIMOTHY J. FLANAGAN, PH.D.

Office:

Framingham State College
Office of the President
100 State Street
Framingham MA 01701
(508) 626-4575 – voice
(508) 626-4002 - fax
E-mail: tflanagan@framingham.edu

Home:

43 Adams Road
Framingham MA 01702-2457
(508) 626-4960 – voice
(508) 626-4976 - fax
E-mail: timothyjflanagan@gmail.com

EDUCATION

- PhD, 1980, Criminal Justice, University at Albany, State University of New York
- MA, 1974, Criminal Justice, University at Albany, State University of New York
- BA, 1973, Gannon University, Erie, Pa.

- Post-graduate:
 - Harvard University, Graduate School of Education, New President's Seminar, 2006
 - Harvard University, Graduate School of Education, Institute for Educational Management, 1999
 - American Council on Education, Fellows Program, 1988-89

CURRENT POSITION

PRESIDENT, FRAMINGHAM STATE COLLEGE, AUGUST 2006 - PRESENT

Chief executive officer of Framingham State College, a public liberal arts college and member of the Massachusetts State College system. The College was founded in 1839 by Horace Mann, and is the nation's oldest public college founded for the education of teachers.

Framingham State College is a vibrant, comprehensive liberal arts institution offering 25 undergraduate degree programs in arts, humanities, sciences, social sciences, and professional fields. Nearly 6,000 students attend Framingham State, including nearly 2,000 graduate students. Framingham State College offers graduate degrees in 23 fields, including an extensive graduate program for teachers in international schools.

The College's annual operating budget is $72 million, and has 470 employees including 175 full time faculty members. The College takes pride in its 32,000 alumni, most of whom live and work in Massachusetts.

Selected college since August 2006

- New academic programs: B.S. major in Environmental Science, Fall 2009; two M.S.N. programs (Nursing Education, and Nursing Leadership), Fall 2008; M.B.A. program Fall 2007

- Completed a comprehensive strategic plan: A Vision for Massachusetts's Premier State College, Spring 2008
- Completed comprehensive capital plan, campus safety plan, and marketing plan, Spring 2008
- Secured Commonwealth capital funding for new Science Center (study and design), 400-bed residence hall, and Faculty Office/Classroom building projects 2008-2012.
- Established record-setting levels of fundraising/private support during FY2007, 2008 and 2009.
- Lead campus participation in Foundations of Excellence in the First Year of College, a national effort to improve the transition of first-year students.
- Established Honors Program Center, Fall 2007
- Established Faculty Center for Excellence in Teaching, Learning, Scholarship and Service, Fall 2007.
- Established United Way community service partnership to facilitate civic engagement among students (awarded Mulready Community Service Award by United Way of Metrowest, Spring 2008).
- Established on-campus Child Care Center, Fall 2008.
- Established MetroWest STEM Education Network, a five-college collaboration with 12 school districts, 14 major science, engineering and technology employers, and others to improve student interest and performance, and STEM teaching effectiveness in K-12.
- Developed multifaceted partnerships with Danforth Museum of Art, Framingham Historical Society and Museum, Claflin Hill Symphony Orchestra.
- Transitioning to new campus information system (Banner) and portal (my.framingham.edu)

Recent community/professional service

- American Association of State Colleges and Universities, National Committee on Teacher Education – Chair 2009-2010; Vice Chair of Committee and Chair of McAuliffe Award Committee 2008-2009
- Massachusetts representative to AASCU Council of State Representatives, 2009-2010
- American Council on Education, Council of Fellows, Director
- Steering Committee, Massachusetts Colleges Online
- Board of Directors, MetroWest Chamber of Commerce; Presidential Search Committee (2009)
- Board of Directors, I-495 Corridor Partnership, Executive Committee (2009)

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

JULY 1998 – AUGUST 2006:

PROVOST AND VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS, STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK, COLLEGE AT BROCKPORT

Responsible for curriculum, instruction, faculty development, academic planning and policy development, new academic program development, information technology, academic information services, research and sponsored funds, continuing education, and institutional research for a public college with 575 faculty, 6,200 undergraduate students, 1,500 graduate students. Administer a $43 million divisional budget, $6.0 million in external research and training funding.

Selected college accomplishments 1998-2006

- Established a Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning, a major campus initiative to enhance the professional development of faculty.
- Implemented the following new academic programs: Computational Science (BS, MS); Social Work (MSW); Environmental Science (BS and MS); Women's Studies (BA); Special Education (MS); Professional Accounting (BS); Marketing (BS); Finance (BS); Public Administration – Public Safety Emphasis (MPA); BS (Political Science) and MPA joint degree program; BS/DPT (Physical Therapy) 3+3 program with SUNY Upstate Medical University.
- Developed innovative collaborative teaching and performance agreements with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, GEVA Theater, and Visual Studies Workshop of Rochester.
- Established the Office of Graduate Studies: responsible for marketing, student recruitment, policy development, and coordination of all graduate programs.
- Implemented an integrated technology organization combining academic and administrative computing, network systems, tech support, media and telecommunications services. Established and co-chair the College Technology Council, a collegewide technology strategic planning and policy development group.
- Established the Academic Priorities Committee, which reviews proposals for new academic programs, assesses and prioritizes existing academic programs; created and administers cyclical academic program review process.
- Lead a major revision of General Education Program, featuring articulated learning outcomes, strengthened mathematics and communications components, required competency examinations in writing, mathematics, and computer skills, and continuous assessment of student learning.
- Implemented a new Faculty Allocation Model to allocate faculty resources in response to institutional priorities.
- Achieved or renewed accreditation by: Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools (Institutional, renewal 2002); Athletic Training (CAAHEP), Business (AACSB), Chemistry (ACS), Computer Science (ABET), Counselor Education (CACREP), Dance (NASD), Nursing (CCNE), Public Administration (NASPAA), Recreation and Leisure Studies (NRPA/AARL), Social Work (BS, and MSW – CSWE), Teacher Education (NCATE).

1991-1998:

Dean, College of Criminal Justice; Director, Criminal Justice Center; Professor of Criminal Justice, Sam Houston State University, Texas.

Chief academic officer of the College of Criminal Justice, which offers bachelors, masters and doctoral degrees. Thirty full-time faculty, 12 staff, and nearly 1,700 students. Chief administrative officer for the Criminal Justice Center, which offers professional development and leadership development programs for criminal justice professionals. Twenty-five staff providing courses for more than 22,000 registrants each year. Combined budgets $6.2 million annually.

Selected College Accomplishments 1991-98:

- Increased enrollment in the College of Criminal Justice by 20 percent.
- Quadrupled research and sponsored funds awarded to the College 1991-98.
- Established six undergraduate scholarship programs and three new graduate scholarships through fundraising in the Houston/Harris County, Texas business community.
- Established comprehensive undergraduate and graduate advising/student services centers.
- Developed new doctoral program in Forensic Psychology in collaboration with Psychology Department faculty.

- Extended criminal justice degree programs into innovative six-university consortium called the University Center, located in Montgomery County, Texas.

1982-1991: School of Criminal Justice, State University of New York at Albany.

1986-91: Associate Professor

1988-90: Special Assistant to the President and Vice President for Academic Affairs

1984-88: Associate Dean

1983-86: Undergraduate Programs Director

1982-86: Assistant Professor

1977-1982: Criminal Justice Research Center, Inc., Albany New York. Various positions from Research Analyst to Executive Director of a private, non-profit research institute with an annual budget of $500,000 and a staff of 30. Responsibilities included principal investigator, proposal development, chief fiscal officer, supervision of research activity, staff selection and supervision.

1975-1977: Teaching Fellow, School of Criminal Justice, State University of New York at Albany.

1974-1975: Instructor, Department of Criminal Justice, Marshall University, Huntington, WV.

HONORS, AWARDS AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Ranked 11th among most-cited authors in criminal justice journals 1986-90. See Cohn and Farrington, "Who Are the Most-cited Scholars in Major American Criminology and Criminal Justice Journals?" Journal of Criminal Justice 22(6): 517-534, 1994.
- Ranked 9th among most-cited criminology and criminal justice doctoral program faculty in six major journals 1991-95. See Cohn and Farrington, "Assessing the Quality of American Doctoral Program Faculty in Criminology and Criminal Justice 1991-95". Journal of Criminal Justice Education 9(1), 1998.
- Recipient, University of Cincinnati Award for "Outstanding Contribution to the Field of Corrections in the United States and Canada" from the American Probation and Parole Association, 1998.
- Delegate, White House Leadership Conference on Youth, Drugs and Violence, Washington DC, March 1996.
- Academy Fellow Award for "Distinguished Teaching and Scholarly Achievement" from the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, 1993.
- Distinguished Alumnus, Rockefeller College of Public Affairs and Policy, University at Albany, 1992.

RESEARCH GRANTS

I have been Project Director of 11 federal grants and Co-Director of one grant from the United States Department of Justice (1980-1992). These grants produced the annual Sourcebook of Criminal Justice Statistics for the U.S. Bureau of Justice Statistics, published by the U.S. Government Printing Office. I also directed grants from the New York State Department of Correctional Services (1986-87) and the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Community Justice Assistance Division (1995) to conduct evaluation research. These grants total $3,570,313.

PUBLICATIONS AND PARTICIPATION IN SCHOLARLY AND PROFESSIONAL MEETINGS

- I have published 40 peer reviewed works in scholarly journals in criminology, political science, and law;
- Five of these articles have been reprinted in scholarly anthologies.
- I have published three edited books,
- Fifteen edited reference books,
- Eight book chapters,
- Five book reviews,
- Fourteen research monographs published by government agencies or research organizations, and
- Eleven other publications including Congressional testimony, encyclopedia entries, and editorials.
- I have presented 65 scholarly papers at meetings of the American Society of Criminology, the American Political Science Association, the Council of Fellows of the American Council on Education, and others.
- I have delivered invited lectures at the University of Vienna, Catholic University of Leuven (Belgium), Glasgow Caledonian University, the National University of Ireland, Maynooth, and universities in the United States.
- A complete bibliography of these publications and presentations is available on request.

Selected recent publications

- 2000 Liberal Education and the Criminal Justice Major. Journal of Criminal Justice Education, 11(1): 1-15, Spring 2000.
- 2001 Educate Prisoners to Spare Them From Return Trip to Jail. Rochester (NY) Democrat and Chronicle, Thursday, November 29, 2001, p.13a.
- 2001 Correctional Nurses' Perceptions of their Role, Training Requirements, and Prisoners' Health Care Needs (with Nancy A. Flanagan). Journal of Correctional Health Care, 8(1): 67-85.
- 2002 An Analysis of the Relationship Between Job Satisfaction and Job Stress in Correctional Nurses. (with Nancy A. Flanagan). Research in Nursing and Health, 25(4): 282-294.
- 2002 Public Opinion, a 4,000 word entry for the Encyclopedia of Crime and Justice. (David Levinson, ed.). Beverly Hills, CA: Sage.
- 2005 Public Opinion, Crime, and Justice: An American Perspective, in S. Parmentier, G. Vervaeke, R. Doutrelepon, and G. Kellens (Eds.), Public Opinion and the Administration of Justice. (Brussels, Belgium: Uitgeverij Politeia NV, 2005).

COURSES TAUGHT

Graduate: Administration of Justice, Computers in Criminal Justice Research, Research Design and Methods, Program Evaluation, Contemporary Issues in Criminal Justice Policy, Incarceration.

Undergraduate: Criminology (Fall 2009). Previous: American Criminal Courts, Research in Criminal Justice, Incarceration, Introduction to the Criminal Justice Process, Introduction to Corrections, Correctional Institutions, Probation and Parole, Correctional Law, Seminar in Crime Prevention.

PREVIOUS COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Rochester Area Interfaith Housing Network, St. Mary's Church, volunteer (2003-6). Providing temporary shelter and support to homeless families in the Rochester area.
- Liturgy Committee, St. Mary's Church, Rochester NY, 2004-6.

- Drug Court Planning Committee, 2nd Administrative Judicial District, Texas, 1997. Developed proposal funded by the U.S. Department of Justice to establish a Drug Court Program in East Texas.
- Walker County (TX) Criminal Justice Planning Group, 1996. Developed county criminal justice plan for Governor's Office, Criminal Justice Division.
- Habitat for Humanity, Montgomery County (TX) chapter, volunteer, 1995-96.
- Texas Board of Criminal Justice, Task Force on Reducing Recidivism, Steering Committee, 1994-95. Developed plan for funding of recidivism prevention programs throughout State of Texas.
- Volunteer Judge, Science and Technology 2000, sponsored by the Conroe (Texas) Independent School District and the Education for Tomorrow Alliance, 1993
- Montgomery County (Texas) Criminal Justice Council, Citizen Member, 1993. County-based justice planning body, appointed by and reporting to County Judges (Supervisors).
- Saint Helen's Parish School Board, Schenectady, New York, 1986-89: Board Secretary, 1986-87; Long-range Planning Committee, 1986-87; Diocesan School Board Liaison, 1986-89; Board President, 1987-88; Constitution/Bylaws Committee, 1988-89
- Niskayuna Recreation Department, Youth Soccer Program, Coach, 1990
- Niskayuna Girls Softball League, Assistant Manager, 1988, Manager, 1989, 1990
- Niskayuna Little League, Assistant Coach, 1986; Coach, 1987, Manager, 1991
- Computer Literacy Volunteer, St. Helen's School, Schenectady, New York, 1983-84.