

SEND US YOUR NEWS.
We would love to hear from you!

Please contact
Development & Alumni Relations
Framingham State College
100 State Street
Framingham 01701-9101
tel: (508) 626-4561
fax: (508) 626-4036
e-mail: development@frc.mass.edu

Sign up for the Online Community at www.framingham.edu/alumni to share news and photographs with classmates and friends, and to access the Online Directory.

1928

Virginia Knudson, class president, passed away in March. She last lived in Belle River, Ontario, Canada, with her family, and is survived by three sons, Paul, Robert and Eric.

1944

Marion (Mim) (Lowe) Harkness is a substitute elementary school teacher. She and her husband William travel frequently and are active in church activities. Marion Harkness plays and teaches hand bells and enjoys playing bridge and doing crossword puzzles.

1948

Estelle J. Abrams lives in Chevy Chase, MD. She has retired from her work at the National Library of Medicine and as a three-year transfer to the World Health Organization in Geneva, Switzerland. She spends her free time doing volunteer work, attending lectures, and enjoying the pleasures of art and music.

1949

Carol (MacDonald) Lanshe traveled to China with her sister, Olive (MacDonald) Johnston, '61, in June. They visited with her son Ken in Shanghai and spent three weeks touring.

Jean (Mahaney) Shotwell is retired and lives in Spotsylvania, PA. She and her husband Stuart have 5 adult children.

1950

Carolyn (Homan) Stoffelen retired from teaching 10 years ago. She now spends her free time reading, traveling, and with her family. She has 8 children and 10 grandchildren.

FRAMINGHAM STATE COLLEGE

The Echo CLASS NOTES

1953

Anne (Fraher) Quinlan teaches oil painting in the Newton Community Schools. She is also president of the West Roxbury Art Association, exhibiting her work and donating paintings to charities.

1956

Dorothy Lopes was named "Woman of the Year" by the New Bedford Standard-Times in 2004. Since retiring in 1989, she has been involved in many volunteer activities.

M. Joan (Dewire) McKenna is the National Regent, the top national leader, for the Catholic Daughters of the Americas and has been a member since 1948. The organization has raised $15,000 in the past 4 years for worthy causes.

Mary Lou Thompson was included in the Marquis Who's Who of American Women, 2004-05 edition. She worked in the education system for 44 years, both as an elementary school teacher and as a reading specialist, and now works as a substitute teacher. "I've always been surprised to be paid for doing something that I love so much," she says.

Myra Zarrow is a substitute teacher for the Wellesley Public Schools.

1958

Leona (Marinacci) Poirier has retired from teaching. She taught in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and Connecticut over the years. She lives in Concord with her husband of 45 years and enjoys cooking, gardening, sewing, painting, and exercising.

1959

Pauline Laing Anderson is retired and lives with her husband James in Western Springs, IL. They plan to move to Florida within the next two years.

1960

Dorothy (Dwyer) Bradley is retired after many years of teaching. She and her husband Patrick are remodeling their house in Lewiston, ID, and are going on a cruise to Panama Canal.

1961

Pauline Reardon Drew retired from full-time dieting consultant work in April 2004. She and her husband bought a cottage on Cape Cod and enjoy spending time there with their family.

1962

Susanne McIvor is principal of Stanley Elementary School in Waltham. She retired at the end of the school year after 40 years of service in the Waltham School District.

Ursula (O'Connor) Patterson, '40, at Reunion Weekend, in front of a portrait of her father, President Martin F. O'Connor (1936-1961).

Diane Saia produces and hosts her own television and radio show, "Law Talk," with her husband, Springfield lawyer Frank Saia. She placed second in the Danceport Invitational competition and will compete in the National Superbowl of Dance in November in Columbus, OH.

1964

Elinor Stead is a speech language pathologist at the Northbridge Primary School in Northbridge.

1966

Sandra Gabrielian is a first grade teacher in Worcester Public Schools. She frequently travels to visit her 4 grandchildren.

Patricia (Hannan) Clement will be retiring after 20 years of teaching fourth grade at the Kearsarge Regional Elementary School in New London, NH. She plans on traveling, spending more time with her family, exercising, and reading.

Arlene (Denlifer) Mindus has retired after nearly 30 years of service in the education field. She is now working as a consultant and writing a book on teaching poetry.

1967

Margaret (Zuzgo) Manazer is living in St. George, UT, close to her daughter and grandchildren. She volunteers on the Salvation Army Committee and helps local charities.

The Echo/Class Notes Policies

Class Notes includes information about career and professional accomplishments of alumni, as well as news of other alumni activities. Due to space limitations we cannot guarantee the inclusion of text and photos. This issue of the Magazine includes Class Notes items received by the Development and Alumni Relations Office by May 11, 2005.

Athletics Hall of Fame

The Framingham State College Athletics Hall of Fame recognizes the achievements and services of past athletes, coaches and friends of Athletics. Please send nominations for the Hall of Fame to Associate Director of Athletics Carey Williams at cwilliams@frc.mass.edu or (508) 626-4565.

Judith A. Gilbride, Ph.D., R.D., '66, has been elected president of the American Dietetic Association. Dr. Gilbride is the Chair and Director of Dietetics Programs in the Department of Nutrition, Food Studies, and Public Health at the Steinhardt School of Education at New York University, and is the editor of Topics in Clinical Nutrition, a peer-reviewed quarterly journal. She earned her master's and doctoral degrees in Nutrition and Dietetics from New York University. Dr. Gilbride's research interests include nutrition in gerontology and geriatric education, clinical nutrition management, and dietetics and genetics education for nutrition and health professionals. Among other honors, she has received the Medallion Award of the American Dietetic Association, and has been named a Distinguished Dietitian by the New York State Dietetic Association.

1968

Polly Eldridge is a WIC (Women, Infants, and Children) Nutritionist in Plymouth.

1969

Linda (Happy) Hyder is an artist working in color photography. She aims to evoke the beauty of everyday life through her images which can be viewed on her Web site, www.lahyderphotography.com.

1970

Beverly (Shatz) Drucker and her husband Edward have been married for almost 20 years. They were in business together and have now moved to Fort Myers, FL. Her first grandchild was born in January and a second is due in August.

Susan (Kendall) Kadzis retired last summer after teaching for 34 years. She plans on traveling with her husband, also retired, and enjoying their lake house in Maine.

Mary Perry has been promoted to assistant vice president of retail banking for the Cooperative Bank of Roslindale. She lives in Ashland.

Paulette Rio and Lance Thomas were married in May 2004. Debra (Rio) Murphy, '76, was maid of honor and Pat (Doherty) Berlandi,

'70, did a reading during the ceremony. Paulette and Lance live in Hyannis.

1971

Patrick Tighe has been appointed Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs at Springfield Technical Community College, where he has been employed since 1982.

1972

Elizabeth (Grigas) Loosemore received her Ph.D. in Nutritional Science from the University of Connecticut in 2004. She is a registered dietitian at UMass Memorial Health Care and Jewish Health Care Center, both in Worcester.

1973

John Derderian has been honored by the Greater Milford Chapter of American Lebanese Syrian Associated Charities for his fundraising efforts on behalf of St. Jude's Hospital. He was also elected the 44th mayor of the Prospect Heights Association.

Christine (Joseph) Hayes is a kindergarten teacher at the Naquag Elementary School in Rutland. She has been teaching for more than 30 years. Her older son is a professor at the University of Colorado, Boulder, and her younger son lives in New Zealand. She is a big Red Sox fan, does yoga, and enjoys the outdoors.

Myra (Pianovich) Kovalak is a sixth grade language arts teacher at the St. Ann's School in Williamsport, PA. She and her husband Daniel have two children.

Ralph Nichols is a vice president at Middlesex Savings Bank, Natick, MA. He and his wife Sue Fosberg have two children.

Elizabeth (San Souci) Pearman is the Business Department chair at Los Medanos College in Pittsburg, CA.

1974

Glenn Coppelman is a program manager for New Hampshire Community Development Finance Authority. He has been on the Kingston Planning Board for almost 20 years.

Ronald Mattioli is a member of the technical staff at the Egenera Corporation. He and his wife Martha Ann have three sons.

Michelle Murphy is the director of North American Chemistry Sales/ Sales Support, Milford, MA.

Jose Vieira became assistant superintendent of the Milford School Department in February, after 12 years as principal of the Brookside Elementary School.

1975

Dennis Giombetti was recently elected to a seat on the Framingham Board of Selectmen. His wife, Ann (Bache) Giombetti, graduated from Framingham State College in 1989, and their daughter Abigail, a first grade teacher, received her M.Ed. at the 2005 Commencement.

Karen McNiff is running for re-election for a three-year seat on the Athol Royalston Regional School Committee. She has worked in the Children's Room at the Athol Public Library for 11 years.

Wayne Ogden is one of 4 finalists for the position of superintendent of Nantucket Public Schools. He has been in the field of education for 30 years and is currently the assistant superintendent for curriculum at Wayland Public Schools.

Doris Stefanini has retired as a school nurse in the Framingham Public Schools. She is a member of several choirs and enjoys spending her time volunteering.

1976

Cherie (Burning) Albano recently joined Team Resendes at Marilyn Green & Co. Realtors' new office in Hudson. She works as both a buyers' and sellers' agent.

Donna (Coppelman) Maxwell is an art teacher at the Potter Road School in Framingham. She and her brother Glenn Coppelman, '74, often reflect on their years at the College. "Although we pursued different fields of study, we shared the common denominator of dedicated, inspiring, and caring professors," she says.

Elin Soderholm is a senior instructional designer at FM Global in Norwood.

1977

Robin Welch, principal of the Woodrow Wilson Elementary School in Framingham, was named Massachusetts 2005 Elementary School Principal of the Year. His award was presented to him in March at the Massachusetts Elementary School Principals Conference by Commissioner of Education David Driscoll. (See page 8)

Anita (Lucas) Zollo qualified as a Chartered Life Underwriter at the American College in Bryn Mawr, PA. She is employed by Fidelity Investments in Marlborough, where she is a human resources associate.

1978

Michael S. Quinn is a manager/home inspector for US Inspect. He and his wife Melissa have been married for 16 years and have a 10-year-old daughter, Maura. He is interested in historic homes and enjoys carpentry, camping, kayaking and hiking.

The Class of 1970 celebrated its 35th reunion on campus the weekend of June 3. Christine Bartolucci LaQualgia brought wonderful weather with her from California. Everyone who attended had a great time renewing old friendships and admiring the newly renovated grounds of FSC. As we proudly watched the 50-year class march down the aisle in Dwight, we realized that in 15 quick years that would be us, so we've already started planning for the big day. Please put aside any pictures or memorabilia that you have from our days on the Hill to use in 2020! Also we'd like to update our e-mail list so please send your e-mail to katheb13@aol.com

Juan Rodriguez, principal of the Fuller Middle School in Framingham, has been named Massachusetts 2005 Middle School Principal of the Year. He will be recognized at a ceremony on Cape Cod this summer. (See page 8)

Michele (Gearan) Saulis is the assistant principal at Farmington High School in Farmington, CT. She lives in West Hartford with her husband Stephen.

1979

Juan Alberto Gaviria is a curator at the Colombo Americano Center in Medellin, Colombia. He has set up an outreach program to encourage collaboration between Colombian and American artists.

Roland Van Liew is the co-founder and president of Hands On Technology Transfer, Inc., a successful firm in Chelmsford that provides advanced training for software professionals.

Patricia (Brown) McGregor, formerly with the Intel Corporation, is now consulting and publishes regularly on the Internet. She is working on projects for underserved teens in her community, Cameron Park, CA, including an Internet café and a dance club.

1980

Martha (Gallant) Crimmins and her husband Tom live in Fredericksburg, VA. Martha is president of the Downtown Retail Merchants and is planning to open a Tea Salon and Shop, "Perfect to a Tea."

Michael Hughes is running for selectman in Douglas. He is the director of the Worcester Region of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Marie Nolan has lived in Taipei, Taiwan, for 20 years. She volunteers for the YMCA and works at a risk management company where she is involved in managing over 200 cases.

1981

Edward Hart attended Commencement this year to see his wife Janet as she received her B.A. degree wearing the medallion she earned in recognition of being the part-time student with the highest academic achievement.

Marjorie (Moran) McKay, '54, represented Framingham State College at the inauguration of Dr. Evelyn Lynch as President of St. Joseph College, West Hartford, CT, in April.

1982

Cynthia (Marston) Figueiredo received her M.Ed. from Chapman University. She is a teacher and department chair at the A.B. Miller High School in Foritana, CA, and lives in Riverside, CA.

Delma Josephson has recently been appointed assistant superintendent of the Narragansett Regional School District. She has 26 years of experience in Harvard Public Schools as a teacher, health coordinator, dean of students, and assistant to the superintendent/principal.

William Lawler has been promoted vice president and director of retail property and asset management for Finard & Company.

Julia Olander, G'90, contributes artwork as a member of the group "21 in Truro." The group of 21 women artists rent cottages in Truro, Cape Cod, every fall to paint and share their experiences. They had their work featured in "Jewels 2004" at the Hogan Gallery in Orleans, MA. The Cape Cod Museum will host a show for the women in August.

Robin Stratton is a writing coach in the Boston area and author of The Revision Process, an advanced guide for writers. She is teaching a writing course in the adult education department at Massasoit Community College this summer.

1983

Susan Anderson Frankfort recently received her Juris Doctor degree from the Massachusetts School of Law.

Donna (Shire) Swift, G'05, is a mathematics teacher at Medway High School. She completed her M.Ed in Curriculum and Instructional Technology at the College in May.

Caroline Vogel works as a consultant and lives in East Greenwich, RI.

1984

John Ginnett III was recently honored by Buena Tool Co. of Santa Barbara, CA, for completing 20 years of service. He is head of outside sales for the company, and his job includes calling upon construction and industry accounts in the Santa Barbara, Ventura region. He is an expert skier and an avid Boston sports fan. He and his wife Tarci live in Ventura, CA.

Sandy (Balzer) Tobin has joined the office of Prudential Town and Country Real Estate with offices in South Natick and Wellesley. She lives in Needham with her husband and two children.

Carol F. Torosian lives in Ashland and is director of quality and risk management at Caritas Carney Hospital in Boston.

1985

Sally Ayotte is the head of food service for the three United States Antarctic Program stations in Antarctica. She has been featured in the CNN special "Antarctica: The Harsh Continent" and in a newly released book by Joanne Gordon, Be Happy at Work: 100 Women Who Love Their Jobs, and Why (Random House, 2005).

At Reunion Weekend, left to right: Robert E. Richards, Jr., Esq., '83, President of the Alumni Association, Stephen C. Ryder, G'69, recipient of the 2005 Alumni Distinguished Service Award, and Stephen Herring, '76, President of the Independent Association of Framingham State Alumni.

1986

Mary Lou Kennedy was the recipient of Bowdoin College's Alumni Award for Faculty and Staff for her work as director of dining and bookstore services at the College. She is also a registered dietitian and has worked at Massachusetts General Hospital.

1987

Joseph D. D'Eramo is owner of Hiroad Communications, a company specializing in writing content for brochures, direct mail, marketing materials, PR and Web sites. He also co-authored and self-published Recipes for the Roommate-Impaired, and his column "Stat Man" appears on www.Soxappeal.org, a Web site devoted to the Boston Red Sox.

1988

Sarah Devaney-O'Neil has opened Storibook Designs Inc., an interior decorating and design business that specializes in children's rooms. Before starting up the business, she worked for 7 years at Total Learning Concepts.

Carol Porter is a fourth grade technology teacher at the Meadowbrook School in Weston.

Mary Jane (Healey) Sawyer is an administrative assistant at Brannen Brothers Flutemakers Inc. She lives in Woburn.

1989

Barbara Jean (Hall) LaBree is a kindergarten teacher in Pawtucket, RI.

1990

Daniel Dowd is an artist. His work was recently included in "Surviving Winter in Maine" at the Center for Maine Contemporary Art in Rockland, ME, and "Trashformations" at the Fuller Craft Museum in Brockton.

1991

Kelly (Johnson Lebo) Egnitz performed as a member of the A Cappella Singers at the Fisk Methodist Church in May at their annual spring concert, "An American Quilt." She has been a member of the group for 5 years and is publicity chair.

1992

Jennifer Dobbins is working on a master's in education at the College. She teaches adult English language learner (ELL) classes as well as training ELL teachers for a private language company based in Wellesley.

April (Richard) Lee and Joseph Lee have moved to Raleigh, NC, with their three daughters. Joseph is the Eastern North Carolina Area Manager for Wells Fargo Home Mortgage. They are enjoying the Southern lifestyle and do not miss the snow.

1993

Kristin (Colleran) Burke and her husband, Edward Burke, '94, are proud to announce the birth of their son Quinlan Francis, born in November 2004.

Jennifer Flynn has completed the Deaf Studies and Interpreter Training Program at Northeastern University and has received her national certification. She is now self-employed as a freelance interpreter. She and her husband have two children.

Sara Herrman lives in Ayer with her husband and their two children. Her daughter Abigail was born last July. She plays field hockey in a women's league.

Christine (Flamand) Martellio teaches mathematics and is an MCAS prep teacher at Uxbridge High School.

1994

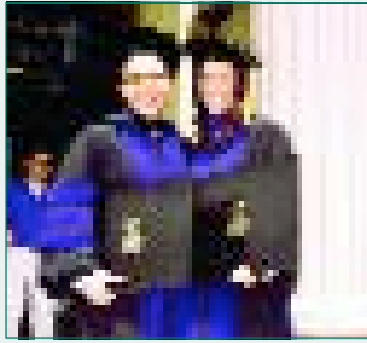

Lisa-Michelle Botte is a reference librarian at the Billerica Public Library and also teaches classes at a scrapbook store. She has two children.

Kimberly (Moran) Brennan and her husband Timothy announce the birth of their son Ryan Alexander Brennan, born in September 2004.

Kristin (Moxham) Keith and her husband David announce the birth of their first born, Ashley Grace Keith, in June 2004.

Michele Sharpe raised money for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute by running in the Boston Marathon in memory of her father who died of lung cancer. She is the assistant principal at Douglas Intermediate-Elementary School in Douglas.

Lynn (Boudreau) Thomas and her husband Jeff announce that their son Connor Jeffrey Thomas was born in April 2004.

Ryan McKeen, '02, Allison (Szewczyk) McKeen, '01, graduated in May from Western New England School of Law. Ryan was selected by his peers to deliver the student commencement address, and Allison received the American Law Association - American Bar Association (ALI-ABA) Award for the best example of a combination of scholarship and leadership, and also the Benjamin D. Novak Award for her note on civil rights, published in the Western New England Law Review.

Marilyn (Madden) Walsh, G'99, and Eric Walsh were married in August 2003 and currently reside in Norwood.

1995

Todd Flanagan and his wife Susan (Paczosa) Flanagan, '96, have two children and live near Providence, RI. He has worked at Akibia Inc. in Westborough for the past 9 years.

Bethany Simoes is a social worker at the Department of Social Services in Brockton.

Laura Lee (Maddix) Willard and her husband Ralph announce the birth of their son Jack Allan Willard in November 2004.

1996

Jill (Stonebraker) Gaudet completed pharmaceutical school in May. She, her husband Tim, and their son Michael live in Maynard.

1997

Amy (Breton) Borggaard, G'05, completed her M.Ed. in Education/ Spanish from the College. She and her husband Andrew announce the birth of their son Austin Andrew Borggaard in January.

Judith Sweeney is a drug and alcohol counselor at the Suffolk County Women's Resource Center.

Michelle (Gauthier) Tuffile and her husband Charles announce the birth of a baby boy, Tucker Abner, born in October 2004. Tucker joins his big sister Camden Margaret. Michelle is currently a stay-at-home mom who teaches infant massage.

1998

Barbara Leboff is accounts receivable coordinator for the Massachusetts Convention Center Authority in Boston. She is active in sports and plays softball and coed floor hockey.

Matthew Schiavi is a dairy farm owner in Locke, NY. He was recently elected as Region 6 YC Director for Agri-Mark/ Cabot.

1999

Tara (Entwistle) Clark published a novel entitled Butterfly in Winter and a book of poetry, August's Daughter. She is a high school English teacher.

Gina Giramma is a teacher at Narragansett High School.

Christine Hoogasian-Greenberger will qualify as a registered nurse in June. She and her husband live in Shrewsbury.

2000

Donna Cassano lives in Franklin with her husband Lou Barabato and her son Anthony John.

Timothea Cornock was married to Matt McGinley in Mexico in June 2004. She is working on a Ph.D. in Forensic Psychology.

2001

Cheryl Marie LeDoux is a sales representative for Green Beacon Solutions, Watertown, selling software for sales force and marketing automation.

Allison (Szewczyk) McKeen graduated in May from Western New England School of Law in Springfield. She was presented with the Best Scholar Leader Award at the ceremony.

Nara K. Paccico and her husband Lawrence are proud to announce the birth of their daughter Cailyn Rose Paccico, born in November 2004.

2002

Ryan McKeen, SGA President 1999-2001, graduated in May from Western New England School of Law in Springfield. He was chosen by his fellow students to be the student speaker at the graduation ceremony.

Justin Redden is engaged to be married to Amber Hudson. The wedding ceremony will take place in March 2006 in Waltham.

Wendy (Stokes) Veilleux and her husband Jim are proud to announce the birth of their son Justin Wayne Veilleux, born in October 2004.

2005

Timothy Allison is working at Topaz Partners, a public relations firm that deals with companies focused on technology. He enjoys hiking and snowshoeing in Maine and New Hampshire.

In Memoriam

Virginia Knudson, '28
 Hester (Russell) Gage, '28
 Helen (Collins) Church, '29
 Catherine (Eagan) Flynn, '30
 Rita C. Dillon, '33
 Doris (Clark) Tilton, '34
 Ruth (Eldridge) Backus, '34
 Helen A. Mace, '37
 Eleanor Waterman, '37

Dorothy (Falvey) Collins, '38
 Beatrice (Parmenter) Johnson, '39
 Dorothy E. Labouteley, '41
 Louise (Donahue) Gorham, '48
 Mary Ellen (Fitzgerald) Boyle, '49
 Barbara J. Kershaw, '59
 Lois (Monique) Angelo, '60
 William R. Mahoney, '63
 Dianne Todd, '67

Thelma Sonnichsen, '68
 Joseph M. Brunetti, '72
 Ruth (Pollicove) Gringorten, '76
 Rosalee L. Smith, '78
 Kathleen Mary Ryan Collins, '83
 Louis Schneider, '86
 Cathleen M. Gleason, '97
 Cathryn (Rastad) Lyman, '97

GRADUATE ALUMNI

1964

Robert Fougere is in his 4th year of teaching eighth grade at St. Francis Xavier Prep in Hyannis, a member of the New England League of Middle Schools. He is also a Eucharistic Minister at St. Francis Xavier Church.

1970

Paul Hickey, a set designer for CBS's "As the World Turns," has received his 6th Emmy Award and 13th nomination for Outstanding Achievement in Art Direction/ Set Decoration/ Scenic Design for a Drama Series. He retired in December 2004 after spending 28 years working for the television series.

1976

Marilyn (Morris) Schwab recently joined the Florida West Coast Framingham Club. She is a retired teacher and lives in Venice, FL.

1980

Ruth Delmonico has retired from teaching in the Nashoba School District. She currently lives in Stow. Janice (Splaine) Welch is assistant for professional development in the Osceola County School District. She lives in Kissimmee, FL, and has three grandchildren, and one great grandchild on the way.

1983

Maureen Roberts is a broker associate at Century 21 Travis Realty in Billerica. She was ranked in the top 1 percent of real estate brokers in New England for units closed in 2004, taking in almost $17 million in sales.

1990

John Steacie is the administrator of Countryside Nursing Home in Framingham. The nursing home was recently featured in an article in The Framingham Tab, and has been run by the Steacie Family since 1962.

1993

Michael Tempesta is the new principal of Ashland High School. He was assistant principal at Sharon High School for five years.

2005

Julie Petercuskie, who recently completed her M.Ed. with a concentration in Art, illustrated a recently published book of poems celebrating rural life in Vermont, A Bed of Leaves by Jerry Johnson

The 2005-2007 IAFSA Executive Board.

Independent Alumni Association Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Independent Association of Framingham State Alumni (IAFSA) was held on Saturday, May 21, in the Ecumenical and Cultural Center on campus. New bylaws were adopted and board members were elected for the 2005-2007 term.

Association President Stephen Herring, '76, called the meeting to order and began by reviewing the progress made over the past year in strengthening relations between the Association and the FSC administration. Details of a new contractual agreement were discussed whereby the Association and the College will be working cooperatively for the benefit of the College and its alumni. The Association will concentrate on its scholarships and interest-free student loan program while the College's Development and Alumni Relations Office will conduct alumni programs and all fundraising. The Association will also have representation on the College's Foundation and Alumni boards.

Newly elected President Kathleen Cotter, '78, presented a gift to Stephen Herring for his service to the Association and reviewed his many contributions.

Weddings

*Paulette Rio, '70, to Lance Thomas
Pauline Gorman, '73, to Alfred Lyng
Joseph D'Eramo, '87, to Karin Senechal
Christine Joy, '90, to James Berthold
William Carnicelli, '95, to Aimee Sabourin
Bret Kerr, '96, to Corrina Balash
Jennifer Beil, '97, to Paul Semeraro
Michael Crotty, '97, to Ariel Durnoik
Bethany Davis, '99, to Chad Jones
Timothea Cornock, '00, to Matt McGinley*

*Kelly Monahan, G'00, to Mark Tashian
Scott Levenson, '00, to Julie Goldbaum
Ashley Coyne, '01, to Kevin McCarron
Michael Corbett, '02, to Diane Marin
Keryn Rossini, '03, to Jason Lodi
Debbie Glusczak, '03, to Anthony Coviello IV
Joy Flickinger, '03, to Leo Tetreault Jr.
Sharlene Moore, G'04, to Troy Papineau
Regina Rochefort, '04, to Edward Tobin*

San Francisco Bay Area Framingham Club Annual Meeting: April 2005

Present were members Marion (Lowe) Harkness, '44, Sheila (O'Connell) Berg, '43, Edith Minty, '47, Bea (Higgins) Turner, '54, Cheryl (Cooper) Vargas, '75, Billi (Gillman) Watland, '89, and Billi's young daughter Marisa.

The members had lunch at Sheila Berg's home in Lucas Valley, CA. After a short business meeting, Billi Watland spoke of her new job in the sports media division of Time-Warner, selling advertising in magazines such as Ski and Diving. She also works with the Warren Miller Ski Films group. Those present commented that it's good to hear about the varied jobs of more recent graduates.

The members then viewed the film that Trustee Connie Jordan, '41, had brought them last June, and enjoyed it immensely. There are also good views of the College on the Web site.

The annual meeting will be held every year on the Saturday after Easter. Next year it will be on April 23 at the home of Roberta (Skehan) Duda, '63, in Marinwood.

Framingham graduates who wish to join the group may get in touch with Marion Harkness, president, at (408) 356-0698 in Los Gatos or Sheila Berg, secretary, at (415) 492-9079 in Marin County.