

Minor in Public Administration (5 Courses)

The Public Administration minor addresses the purpose, function and behavior of public sector agencies and the management of government and non-profit organizations. It addresses the environment in which public administration operates and provides students with the tools and techniques public sector managers employ to develop, promote, implement, and assess public policy and programs.

POSC 223 Bureaucratic Politics and Policy

POSC 325 Public Management

POSC 328 Public Budgeting and Management

POSC 329 Public Policy Analysis

POSC 335 Public Personnel Management