Placement Description

A minimum of 36 hours of classroom observation is required for Field Study I. Students observe and participate in a variety of experiences typically fulfilled through 12 weekly visits of three or more hours. They have an opportunity to gain an initial understanding of the many dimensions of service provided by educators and offer classroom assistance such as tutoring and leadership in small group discussions. Supervising practitioners receive 36 professional development credits.

Notes and Directions:

- Please type and attach a well-constructed essay, one page or less in length, including the following:
 - descriptions of your experiences with students or children
 - descriptions and explanations, if appropriate, of your personal interests, hobbies, and special skills
 - a statement indicating what you hope to gain from this experience
 - a statement indicating what you hope to contribute to the classroom
- Both pages of your Personal Data Sheet (this page and your essay) will be sent to your placement site. It will serve as an initial introduction to your supervising practitioner and principal and assist them in accommodating your skills and needs.
