Students with Disabilities: In order to receive academic accommodations, students must have proper and up-to-date documentation on file in the Office of Academic Support. Specific guidelines for documentation are available for learning disabilities; Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD); psychological impairments; visual, hearing and mobility-related impairments; and medical conditions. For further information, please contact Academic Support at 508-626-4906.
❑ Yes, I would like to receive information on Academic Support for students with disabilities.

Withdrawals/Refunds: A student withdrawing from a course must contact the Division of Graduate and Continuing Education and complete the appropriate Withdrawal Form. A grade of "W" is automatically awarded to a student who withdraws. Messages (including e-mails and telephone calls) either to the instructor or the Division of Graduate and Continuing Education do not constitute withdrawal. Unless a withdrawal form has been completed by the student and submitted to the Office of Graduate and Continuing Education, the student has not officially withdrawn. Non-participation does not constitute a withdrawal. Students who stop participating will receive a failing grade (E) unless they have officially withdrawn.

No refunds are given for a professional development course.
