Required international experience component (4; see catalog):

Students must take at least one (1) semester of study abroad and strongly recommended to be taken during junior year. The study abroad experience should align with the student's area of focus. Classes taken abroad can count as interdisciplinary electives or restricted electives with the program director's approval. Under exceptional circumstances, to be determined by the Program Coordinator, a student may opt to an intensive internship program abroad or within the United States at an appropriate organization.

A minimum of 2 language courses at the 200 level or above:

At least two (2) 200-level or above language classes. This requirement is waived if the student completes a minor in Chinese, French, or Spanish.
