2.0 President’s Report:

President Cevallos reported on the following matters:

- University Goals for AY2016-2017 including “3 R’s” of recruitment, retention and responsiveness; as well as “3 P’s” of policies, practices and procedures
- Next strategic plan will be written during this academic year
- Fundraising campaign has exceeded $10 million mark with one year left to go
- Letter from President was published in first edition of the Gatepost educating students on freedom of speech and urging tolerance for open debate on campus

President Cevallos introduced Debbie Reagan Cleveland, Executive Director for Independent Association of Framingham State Alumni, who read a letter from an alumni and scholarship recipient praising her experience at FSU.

President Cevallos introduced Dr. Sunny Tam, Director of PSM in Biotechnology, who introduced Eva Gramajo, the student-in-the-spotlight. Ms. Gramajo spoke about her experience in the Professional Science Master’s Degree program in Biotechnology with a Concentration in Quality Assurance program.

3.0 Chief of Staff & General Counsel and Secretary’s Report
Chief of Staff & General Counsel Rita Colucci informed the Board that Trustee Dana Neshe had been reappointed, and reported that the University was still waiting to hear about the reappointment of Trustee Gregory.

4.0 Student Trustee Report
Chair Logan introduced new student Trustee Karl Bryan. Trustee Bryan reported on student issues including:

- slow Wi-Fi
- slow RAM Shuttle service
- parking on campus
- lack of food options on campus, especially on the weekends
- lack of student input into new residence life policies
- student fees

Students were pleased with the response and transparency to the incident at the Campus Police department efforts in light of recent events.

Executive Vice President Dale Hamel will look into the issues that Trustee Bryan raised.

5.0 Academic Affairs

Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs’ Linda Vaden-Goad spoke briefly on the following matters:
