Overview of Excellence in Assessment (EIA) Designation

- Nicholas started the meeting by providing an overview on the Excellence in Assessment (EIA) designation.
- The EIA designation recognizes institutions for their efforts in intentional integration of campus-level learning outcomes assessment. The EIA designations focus on campus processes and uses of assessment outcomes, rather than on student performance or accomplishment.
- Framingham State will be submitting their application on May 1, 2017.

Review of FSU's EIA application

- Nicholas gave each member the current draft of FSU's application for the EIA designation.
- Members were given time to read and reflect.

Apply EIA rubric to FSU's application

- After members were given the chance to review the application they were asked to break into groups.
- Each group was given a component of the EIA rubric.
- The groups then applied their component of the EIA rubric to FSU's application.
- After 20 minutes groups shared their feedback on the alignment between the application and their rubric component.
- AAG members gave feedback on areas of alignment and areas of improvement.

Discussion on next steps for EIA designation

- Nicholas informed AAG members that he would incorporate their feedback into FSU's application for the EIA designation.

The meeting ended at 12:30PM. The next AAG meeting will be held during the Fall 2017 semester.
