Introduction

The 2018 Graduate Student Exit Survey was sent out by email on May 6, 2018. The survey was sent to a total of 416 Framingham State University graduate students who have completed their degree or were about to complete their degree at the end of the Spring 2018 semester. The Office of Institutional Assessment received 219 completed surveys. The response rate for the survey was 52.64%.

Field	Mean	Count
My courses were online	41.04%	198
I would have preferred online:	45.32%	174

The question asked respondents to mark the percentage of courses taken online and the percentage they would prefer to take online using a slider that went from 0% - 100%. The table above shows the means for each. Graduate students reported that they took approximately 41% of courses in the online format. Students indicated they would have preferred to have taken 45% of courses online. This indicates that students are generally satisfied with the balance of offerings between face-to-face and online course offerings in graduate studies.
