Description: Addresses strategies and processes for developing effective collaborative relationships among special and general educators, families, and outside agencies. Emphasis will be placed on developing knowledge of services through other agencies, communication skills, establishing role responsibilities, and reaching consensus. Participants will explore effective communication strategies that lead to building and maintaining positive relationships with families, the school community, outside agencies, and students. Participants will develop a clear working knowledge of private schools and state agencies that support and provide services to school districts, children, and families. Also addressed will be the necessary services by various providers to support the transition process of students with disabilities to adult life. This course helps participants develop strategies for effective schooling for students with disabilities and the instruction of students with diverse learning styles.

QUESTIONS
If you have general questions or need assistance, please post your comments to the Ask Deb discussion board of the course. Most likely, someone in the class has the same question. If the question is specific to your work, please email dmerriam@framingham.edu or phone 508-359-2710. Questions will be answered within 24 to 48 hours.

COMPUTER SKILLS
Participants are expected to have basic computer skills, know how to search the web, understand how to send an email and attach a file, and have basic file management skills. A fairly new computer connected to the internet works best with Blackboard and familiarity with the learning management tool is also advised. Mozilla Firefox is the preferred browser to use with Blackboard.

ACADEMIC HONESTY
All students enrolled in courses at Framingham State University must abide by the University Policy Regarding Academic Honesty, as published in the Framingham State University catalog and the RAM Student handbook. All forms of academic dishonesty, including cheating on exams and plagiarism, are serious offenses and are subject to scrutiny under due process. By logging into Blackboard, you agree to the university Acceptable Use Policy which also covers academic honesty.
To become more familiar with this policy click here.

TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES
You are encouraged to reference the link to Atomic Learning on Blackboard if you have a need to brush up on your technology skills or learn how to use a specific computer application. Atomic Learning self-paced tutorials are free to anyone enrolled in a course at the university. In addition, if you are new to Blackboard or online courses, may visit the FSU Blackboard support site or Blackboard Help to view (2-4 minute) show me videos about how to submit an assignment, participate in discussion forums, and much more. Blackboard support is also available 24-7 by calling 1-866-361-8970.

BLACKBOARD MOBILE LEARN may be used to read discussion board posts or class material. It does not work as well for participating on the discussion boards or for submitting assignments. Download the app from the Blackboard login page.

ACCOMMODATIONS
Framingham State University offers equal opportunities to all qualified students, including those with disabilities and impairments. The University is committed to making reasonable accommodations as are necessary to ensure that its programs and activities do not discriminate, or have the effect of discriminating, on the basis of disability. Academic Support serves students with learning and psychiatric disabilities as well as students with visual, mobility and hearing impairments. For further information about this, please visit the website at https://www.framingham.edu/academics/center-for-academic-success-and-achievement/ or contact Ms. LaDonna Bridges, Director of Academic Support/Disability Services, in the Center for Academic Support and Achievement (CASA) at 508-626-4906 or lbridges@framingham.edu.

Course Requirements:
The course is designed as an active collaborative four Unit online learning experience. Participants are expected to log in frequently during the Unit, complete the assigned reading/viewing/exploration and respond to the prompt as well as to at least two classmates' entries. Course material is arranged in modules and should be viewed in the order listed.
There is no textbook to buy and no face to face meetings scheduled. All material is posted on the University eLearning platform – Blackboard. Students may expect to spend approximately three hours each Unit participating on the discussion board and reviewing course material. As a final assignment, students will submit a completed template of a curriculum unit and lesson plan adapted to meet the needs of a student with learning challenges.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS
Participation in all assignments and course discussions is required. If you anticipate being away during any part of this course, make plans to have access to a computer connected to the internet. The course is 5 units of discussion based on readings, DESE website resources, and additional resources - links provided within the course site.
