Course Overview

Course Description:
This course is designed for educators and specialists. Through Special Topics, participants examine mindfulness, its history, its implications for learning, and how schools are using mindfulness to increase students’ attention and concentration. Participants complete all readings (Read, Watch, Listen) before the online discussions, and complete a final project.

Course Objectives/Outcomes

Participants will:
1. Explain the connection of Mindfulness, to the Massachusetts Comprehensive Health Curriculum Framework - October 1999: Social and Emotional Health Strand
2. Define mindfulness
3. Explain the implications of Mindfulness on executive functioning
4. Name at least three different ways mindfulness looks in the K-12 classroom
5. Demonstrate Mindfulness in the classroom

Course Expectations:
a) Online attendance is mandatory, posting several times throughout the week. Refer to the Discussion Board Rubric. In the event of unplanned absence, it is the responsibility of the student, at the discretion of the instructor to complete all missed work. Note: Discussions cannot be made up.
b) Participants will come to the Discussion Board, prepared for in-depth discussions and ready to participate actively in the online discussion forum, throughout the four weeks through to the final week.
c) One grade will be deducted for any late assignments not cleared by the instructor.
d) Assignments may be resubmitted with prior approval from the instructor.
e) A final project is required and due on or before the last day of class, no exceptions.

Course Content/Outline:
Description: This course is heavily reliant upon Discussion Board posts. Each week begins on a Monday and has a Guiding Question (GQ) Assignment, which typically has several parts. Every student is expected to provide their initial response to the GQ and continue the discussion through subsequent posts to the group, utilizing the text and videos. (See the Discussion Board Rubric)

Week 1: Module 1 - Discovering Mindfulness
Week 2: Module 2 - Mindfulness and Executive Functions
Week 3: Module 3 - The Practice of Mindfulness
Week 4: Module 4 - Creating Mindful Classrooms
Grading Components:
40 points = Discussion Board posts - the readings (tied to the number, and quality of posts
(See Rubric for discussion board)
40 points = Assignments (See Rubric for Assignments)
20 points = Final Project: PowerPoint, Prezi, Podcast, Adobe Spark or Research Paper (APA)
100 points

Grading/Grade Points
A, A- (95-100 A, 90-94 A-) Indicates that the level of work is of superior quality and exceeds specific guidelines in one or more ways. Work and discussion posts exceed expectations.
B+, B, B- (87 - 89 B+, 83 - 86 B, -80 – 82, B-) Indicates that the course work has met the requirements and was judged acceptable. Work and discussion posts meet expectations.
C+, C, C- (77 – 79 C+, 73-76 C, 70-72 C) indicates that the level of work did not adequately meet the requirements. D+ 69-67 D 66-63 D- 62-60 F 59-0

How to use the Tables and Guiding Questions
The information found in the Tables, are presented in a variety of formats (Read, Watch and Listen) so that participants can best meet their learning needs. Each weekly discussion will be based on the required readings/viewings. Each weekly Discussion Board will begin with one or more questions, referred to as Guiding Questions or GQ. Discussions boards run week to week, once a week closes, posts cannot be made up. Please see the Rubric for Asynchronous Discussion Participation.

IMPORTANT NOTE: ALWAYS CHECK THE MODULES FOUND ON THE COURSE BLACKBOARD FOR REQUIRED READINGS AND VIDEOS. READINGS AND VIDEOS LISTED WITHIN THE SYLLABUS, CAN AND
DO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE. AS A RESULT, REQUIRED READINGS/VIDEOS WILL BE SUBSTITUTED WITH NEW MATERIAL AS NEEDED.

Discussion Board Rubric for Asynchronous Discussion Participation

A Quality of Postings Indicator
Asynchronous discussion enhances learning as participants share their ideas, perspectives, and experiences with the class. Participants develop and refine their thoughts through the writing process, plus broaden their classmates’ understanding of the course content. Each weekly discussion is organized around the Guiding Questions, to which participants must respond.
Post your thoughts and provide supporting evidence using the readings, viewings, and audios (RVA). DO NOT just give the facts. Posts MUST reflect how the RVAs have impacted upon your thinking and the work that you do.

Participants will use the following feedback to improve the quality of their discussion contributions.

Grading Discussion Board Posts
Discussion postings that meet all criteria for a grade level will receive the highest points possible at that level. Postings that meet mixed levels of criteria will receive a score within the point range of the appropriate levels.

Participation in discussion activities can only be measured by the date on the discussion posting. For example, participating 3 times during the week is measured by postings on 3 different days; there may actually be 5-6 postings, but participation only occurred 3 times during the week.

Discussion Board Rubric
There are five criteria, the Initial Post, Additional Posts, Details in Each Post, The Quality of Information in Response to Other’s Posts, and The Frequency of Weekly Discussion Posts. The highest amount of points that can be earned in one week, for a score of excellent, is a score of 20 points.

First Criteria, the Initial Post, responds to the Guiding Question or GQ. This is your response to the question following the completion of readings. The initial post fully addresses the Guiding Question or questions. The post demonstrates a proficient understanding, and the score would be 4 points.

An Initial Post that addresses the topic Guiding Question or GQ and shows above average understanding scores 3 points.

An Initial Post that addresses the topic Guiding Question or GQ and shows adequate understanding receives an adequate score of 2 points.

An Initial Post that addresses the topic Guiding Question or GQ and shows Posts not tied to the topic, or no post at all and is found unacceptable and scores 1 to 0 points.

Second Criteria, additional posts, addresses the need for posts following the Initial Post. Additional posts occur throughout the weekly discussions: Additional postings focus on your response to other’s while you are reading, and or following the completion of weekly readings or videos. The additional posts build on other’s posts and comment analytically. The additional posts quote directly from other’s posts, and the score would be 4 points.

Additional posts, which follows the Initial Post, builds on others posts and comments analytically, yet does not directly quote from other’s post, scores 3 points.

Additional posts, which follows the Initial Post, respond to others posts, yet lacks depth and without quoting directly or indirectly from other’s post, scores 2 points.

Additional posts, which follows the Initial Post, yet lacks depth and without quoting directly or indirectly from other’s post, and comments may not relevant to the discussion, and is found unacceptable and scores 1 to 0 points.
Third Criteria, focus on details in each post and address the requirement for highly detailed and correct posts. Posts throughout the week would possess three or more quotes from readings, podcasts or videos to support your statements and the score would be 4 points.

Posts throughout the week are detailed and correct. Quotes taken from readings or videos are utilized to support statement at least one to two times and scores 3 points.

Posts throughout the week are somewhat detailed and correct. Quote are not utilized from readings or videos to support statements yet refers to readings and scores 2 points.

Posts throughout the week respond to others with few details or facts. No quotes or references from readings or videos are used to support statements and is found unacceptable and scores 1 to 0 points.

Fourth Criteria, refer to the quality of information in response to other posts. To score four points, the posts would refer to what others have written, and provides details from information gathered within the course and encouraged new ideas, and the score would be 4 points.

Posts that refer to what others have written, providing some details from information gathered within the course, scores 3 points.

Posts that only refer only to what others have written, does not provide information gathered within the course, scores 2 points.

Posts that do not refer to what others have posted, through a post is made in the attempt, score 1 to 0 point.

Fifth criteria, refer to the frequency of weekly discussion posts. To enjoy a dynamic class experience, each participant is encouraged to share their voice, opinions, and reactions, and unique points of views are focusing on the content and the work that they do. Posts should be frequent throughout the week, indicating how the new weekly content has impacted their thinking and classroom practices.

Frequent posts are essential, and 80% of your grade is derived from the quality of your posts. Being present often ensures that your voice is heard. Posting at least 7-8 times throughout the week is essential, and the score would be 4 points.

Posts at least 5-7 times throughout the week and shows good effort, scores 3 points.

Posts at least 3-4 times throughout the week and shows acceptable effort, scores 2 points.

Posting 0-2 times shows unacceptable effort, and scores 1 to 0 points.

Note: All Discussion Board rubric points are evaluated on a 4-3-2-1-0 basis. The highest score for each Discussion, note there are five criteria on which you are graded equally points each, adding up to 20 points weekly and over the 4-week course a total of 80 points.
Participants will review readings/viewings, by analyzing the content for information, what is interesting, and what is new, and what is considered the pros and cons of the content.

Participants should justify their analysis, providing their own opinions utilizing classroom experiences or other areas of expertise.

Participants will quote information to support statements made within the posts, and opinions must be backed up by quoting from the readings/videos.

What to Consider when posting:
• Guiding Questions (GQ)
• Initial posting
• Refer to at least two specific points, from the article or reading.
• Conveying new information
• Contrasting earlier information learned in the course of new information (after week1).
• Convey information from the read, watch, listen to information gathering, to personal experiences.
• Consider the importance of the final post to the Discussion board
• Discussion at a *critical level is not just facts from information gathered, but rather the facts are to be used to provide supporting evidence (see below).
• Discussion at a critical level means discussing, for example, the following:
  • Opinion on the facts gathered or facts mentioned by others in the discussion group
  • Why the opinion is held.
  • What questions arise after reading or viewing the content?
  • Are the points, facts, opinions, consistent and or inconsistent with the material presented so far
  • What are the implications for the future, consistencies, and or inconsistencies within the readings or videos?

Note: Participants will review readings/viewings, by analyzing the content for information, what is interesting, and what is new, and what is considered the pros and cons of the information. Participants should justify their analysis, providing their own opinions, not just quote information. However, your opinion must be supported by citing from the readings/videos.

Final Project – Due on or before the last day of class
Participants are required to create a Final Project. The Final Project should address how the course content has influenced their thinking. The Final Project can be a tool to be used by you for professional purposes, a presentation or an activity. It should be short, for example, no more than 20 slides, concise, and cite from course content. DO NOT provide an overview of the course content.
*Format choices:
1. PowerPoint (Visual & Audio) might be useful if the intent is to share the information.
2. A Prezi (instead of a PowerPoint)
3. A Podcast
4. Writing a 10-page double-spaced APA style paper. One page of the document may include a Wordle.
5. Or any other application that you choose to use to create your Final Project.
Note: If a participant chooses to create a Podcast, a summary of the podcast and sources cited, using APA style guidelines is required.
Rubric for the Final Project

Five criteria for the final project are as follows: Question, Information, Quotes and Encourages new ideas.

First Criteria, The Question
If the question directly relates to the course topics and the work that you do, this question earns a score of 4 points.
If the question is somewhat related to the course topics, and the work that you do, this question earns a score of 3 points.
If the question indirectly relates to the course topics, and the work that you do, this question earns a score of 2 points.
