Discussion Board Rubric for Asynchronous Discussion Participation

A Quality of Postings Indicator
Asynchronous discussion enhances learning as participants share their ideas, perspectives, and experiences with the class. Participants develop and refine their thoughts through the writing process, plus broaden their classmates’ understanding of the course content. Each weekly discussion is organized around the Guiding Questions, which participants must respond to.

Grading Discussion Board Posts
Discussion postings that meet all criteria for a grade level will receive the highest points possible at that level. Postings that meet mixed levels of criteria will receive a score within the point range of the appropriate levels.

Discussion Board Rubric

There are five criteria, the Initial Post, Additional Posts, Details in Each Post, The Quality of Information in Response to Other’s Posts, and The Frequency of Weekly Discussion Posts. The highest number of points that can be earned in one week, for a score of excellent, is a score of 20 points.

Participants will review readings/viewings, by analyzing the content for information, what is interesting, and what is new, and what is considered the pros and cons of the information. Participants should justify their analysis, providing their own opinions, not just quote information. However, your opinion must be backed up by quoting from the readings/viewings.

What to Consider when posting:
• Guiding Questions (GQ)
• Initial posting
• Refer to at least two specific points, from the article or reading.
• Conveying new information
• Contrasting earlier information learned in the course of new information (after week 1).
• Convey information from the read, watch, listen information gathering, to personal experiences.
• Consider the importance of the final post to the Discussion board
• Discussion at a *critical level is not just facts from information gathering, but rather provides supporting evidence (see below).
• Discussion at a critical level means discussing, for example, the following:
  • Opinion of the facts gathered, or facts mentioned by others in the discussion group
  • Why the opinion is held
  • What is wrong with the fact/s mentioned
  • Are the points, facts, opinions, consistent and or inconsistent with the material presented so far
  • What are the implications for the future, consistencies, and or inconsistencies within the readings or videos?

Final Project – Due on or before the last day of class
Participants are required to create a Final Project. The Final Project should address how the course content has influenced their thinking. The Final Project can be a tool to be used by you for professional purposes, a presentation, or an activity. It should be short, for example, no more than 20 slides, concise, and cite from course content. DO NOT provide an overview of the course content.
*Format choices:
  1. PowerPoint (Visual & Audio) might be useful if the intent is to share the information.
  2. A Prezi (instead of a PowerPoint)
  3. A Podcast may be useful to create a report, much like a newscast **
  4. Writing a 10-page double-spaced APA style paper.
  5. Or any other application that you choose to create your Final Project.
