

FALL SCHEDULE COURSE DELIVERY METHODS

Framingham State University (FSU) will be offering Fall 2021 courses in multiple delivery methods.

Course Expectations - All of the course delivery methods listed below are not self-paced. Faculty provide a list of topics and assignments with due dates for the semester in the course syllabus. Fall 2021 classes begin on September 2, 2021. You should expect to spend a minimum of 12 hours per week on each course; this will include any FACE-TO-FACE or REMOTE (Synchronous) class time.

Please note the following definitions:

Synchronous - The course meets at specific days and times, which are listed in the course schedule, and you will attend class at those specified times. For lectures, discussions, and presentations there is real-time interaction between the faculty and the students.

Synchronous refers to both FACE-TO-FACE (i.e. in-person on campus) and REMOTE delivery methods. (Examples of remote include Zoom, Canvas, or other similar platform).

Asynchronous – The course or a portion of the course has no meeting days and times. You will not attend class at a set time, but rather access pre-recorded lectures and/or digital curriculum materials at a time of your own choosing but within the timeframe specified in the course syllabus. Interactions between faculty and the class occur through FSU email, discussion boards, social networking, and/or collaborative documents.

Asynchronous refers to the ONLINE delivery method.

Hybrid- A combination of Synchronous and Asynchronous delivery methods.

On the Fall 2021 Course Schedule, as viewed through myFramingham or the Student Schedule Planner, you will notice changes in the “Location” display field for each course.

Fall course Locations, as seen below in the last column in from the right, will be denoted from the following options:

FACE-TO-FACE (F2F) (Synchronous)

A Building and Room Number will be listed as the course Location on your course schedule. You will need report to this building & room on the specific course day and time as the class will be delivered in-person.
