This type of internship offers stipends of $15 per hour for a maximum of 60 hours per semester. The number of weeks and hours per week can be flexible. Professional experiences may be either on- or off-campus.

3.Micro-internships

Students who are unable to commit to 60 hours of professional experience during a semester may apply for funding for unpaid micro-internships. ## What are the deadlines for the Various Types of Internship Applications?

Course-Credit Internships

For fall and spring internship stipends, the deadline is one week after the Drop/Add period ends. So, for instance, if Drop/Add ends on a Tuesday, then the deadline is one week from that Tuesday.

Mini-Internships & Micro-Internships

Stipend applications can take place almost anytime during a semester. Timing of application is based on project length and number of hours the student will work that semester.

How are the application forms submitted to MHWPC?

Humanities students should email their applications to mancusocenter@framingham.edu by deadlines noted above.

Who will decide if I get funding for my internship?

The MHWPC funds as many students as possible. We consider financial need when funding is awarded. The Dean of Arts & Humanities, in consultation with the Executive and Assistant Directors of MHWPC, will make final decisions.
