

Hack.Diversity is a FREE 8-month career development program for black, Latinx, and/or otherwise underrepresented tech talent to launch and advance technical careers in the Boston innovation economy.

Hack.Diversity Fellows receive benefits including best practices for navigating professional environments, job application and technical interview skills, industry exposure and network building, mentorship from industry professionals, access to paid summer internship, and the support of the Hack Community.

YOU belong in Boston tech! APPLY HERE: <https://bit.ly/hack2021>

Deadline: Sept 28 (decision by Nov)

Who should apply?

Candidates matching the following:

- Passionate about diversity in tech
 - Pursuing careers in software engineering, IT/Networking, Data Analytics, UX Development
 - If currently completing a BACHELOR DEGREE or GRADUATE DEGREE, you are graduating between Jan 2020 and Dec. 2022
 - If you are completing an ASSOCIATE DEGREE, BOOTCAMP, PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION, you are graduating between Jan. 2020 and Dec. 2021
 - 3.0 GPA or above preferred
 - Available to dedicate 20 hrs/month between January – May 2021 to participate in Hack.Diversity programming, including in-person workshops and events in the Greater Boston, MA area
 - Available to dedicate 40 hrs/week between June – August 2021 to participate in Hack.Diversity programming including in-person workshops and events in the Greater Boston, MA area
- The application to join Hack.Diversity 2021 Fellowship Cohort is LIVE. Click HERE to apply now.

Application & Selection Timeline

September 28: Application closes! All of the following components must be submitted:

- transcript (unofficial is fine!)
- resume
- short essay questions
- 2 references
- completion of coding challenge (software engineering roles only)

Early October: interview decisions released

Early November: application decisions released.

Jan. - Aug. 2021: Hack.Diversity 2021 programming