Emergencies: Dial ext. 4911

For a University emergency requiring emergency medical assistance:

- Call University Police at ext. 4911. Stay on the line until all necessary services have been requested.
- The University Police Dispatcher will ask the nature of the emergency. The Dispatcher will take down all the necessary information and forward it to the emergency medical service (EMS). It is very important that the caller have as much information as possible ready to give to the Dispatcher. Always identify an entrance where staff will be waiting for assistance to arrive.
- The caller should stay on the line until released.
- Self-identification.
- Building's name and room number.
- Situation / incident / location / victims.
- Other relevant information.
- Designate a person to meet responding Police / Fire / Ambulance.

All University Police Officers are certified in C.P.R. and are trained First Responders.

University Police Officers are on duty 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
